

Cell Phone and Telephone Use

Students are not allowed to use cell phones during the school day.

During the school day, cell phones must be left in the students' lockers and turned off.

If the phone rings or a student is using the phone in any way during the day (including but not limited to checking messages, taking photos, looking at apps) it will be confiscated and sent to the office. If a cell phone is confiscated during the school day, a parent must pick up the phone in the school office.

Student use of the telephone during the school day is restricted to emergency circumstances and must go through the school office. Students are not allowed to make or change after school social arrangements.

If parents needs to communicate with their children during the school day, they will need to call the office to leave a message. Communication during the school day is intended only for emergency situations.

Students are not allowed to use any phone to call for forgotten gym clothes, homework, books or forgotten lunches.
