

Read Across America Week March 1st-5th

Monday, March 1st- We're Tied Up in Books!

- Students can dress down wearing tie-dye and jeans, tie bows/ribbons in their hair, or wear a tie or bowtie.
- All school story time! Principal Folino will read a story following announcements via Zoom ☺
- Kick-off to our school-wide reading challenge for the month of March! Reading log and challenge information will be distributed by homeroom teachers.

Tuesday, March 2nd- Reading Gives us a Bright Future!

- Students can wear sunglasses or a hat to school. Students may also wear a neon shirt.
- Students will participate in a Dr. Seuss directed drawing. Projects will be put on display.

Wednesday, March 3rd- Wear your words!

- Wear a shirt with a quote/saying (must be school appropriate) and jeans.
- Students will participate in a creative writing project.

Thursday, March 4th- Cozy up with a book!

- Students may dress down wearing comfy clothes and bring their favorite book from home for 30 minutes of reading time.
- Students will receive a bookmark to design/color.

Friday, March 5th- Spirit Wear

- Inspired by the book "Fox in Socks", students may wear crazy socks with their Spirit Wear.
