

Read Across America Week

March 6th-March 10th

Monday, March 6th- Reading Can Take You Places!

- Students will be given a lei to wear with their uniform.
- Teachers will swap classrooms and read their favorite book.
- Kick-off to our classroom reading challenge for the week! Reading logs will be distributed by homeroom teachers.
- Family Read Across America Challenge will be sent home.

Tuesday, March 7th- Cozy up with a Book

- Students may wear comfy clothes and bring their favorite book from home. Each homeroom will designate a time to stop, drop, and read!

Wednesday, March 8th- Reading is Magical!

- Students can dress as their favorite book character. Bring your book along for a school-wide parade. No costume? No problem. Wear a shirt with your favorite character or just bring along your favorite book. All students will take part in the parade.

Thursday, March 9th-Reading Brings out the Best in Us!

- Students will be dressed up for picture day!
- March is Women's History Month-as a homeroom, listen/watch a story written by a woman, or about a strong female!

Friday, March 10th- Books Bring a Rainbow of Possibilities

- Students may wear colored socks with their uniforms or Spirit Wear.
